GEM Gathering: Hike & Brunch!

Saturday, October 19
10:00am-12:00pm
Meet at Pio bus stop

Join mentors Sofia and Julian on a fun hike with brunch! The hike will take about an hour. Please wear appropriate attire. The trail provides a nice balance -- enough to enjoy the outdoors and get some fresh air without being overly tiring.

The hike will be followed with brunch at the Bon with food from Grand Central Bakery.

GEM Gathering: Board Game Night

Wednesday, October 23
6pm
IME Suite

This is a GEM Gathering which is meant to be a fun event hosted by Mentor Visagan. Relax and have fun by playing board games and drinking hot chocolate. Reach out to multicultural@lclark.edu with any questions.

Collective: Spooky Water Pong Tournament

Sunday, October 27th
2pm
Smith Hall

Come to have fun while learning about healthy/safe party habits with IME's Collective: Student of Color Association.

Please sign up with your name, partner's, and team names. There will be a prize for the tournament winners (second place will also receive prizes) and a costume contest, so come dress in your best Halloween costume! There will also be a raffle for all attendees. Refreshments will be provided. The deadline to sign up is Friday, October 25th. All are welcome to participate.

Thank you to Community Accountability and Conflict Education (CACE) and Health Promotion and Wellness (HPW) for supporting this program!

Bold and Embodied: Call for Models!

As part of the 21st annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies, we are organizing a fashion show to celebrate the stories behind our style, and participants are needed to make it happen. This event is an invitation for students and other L&C community members to share the cultural identities, ethnic backgrounds, religious traditions, and racialized forms of expression that help them fashion a sense of personal style and create narratives of who they are.

Learn more and volunteer to model by reaching out to our coordinator:
leannerobinson@lclark.edu.

A poster titled "Call for Models!" with a pink flower graphic. It features three small photos of people modeling. The text describes the event as part of the 21st Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies, aiming to celebrate cultural identities and create narratives of personal style. It lists event details: Friday, Nov. 15, 3:30-4:30 in Smith Hall, self-styled, and open to L&C community and alumni. It also includes a list of requirements: wear what has meaning, show off accessories and fabrics (casual, slutty, subversive, lazy, or formal), no experience necessary, and a 4-hour time commitment max (one dress rehearsal and some brief outfit descriptions). A link to sign up is provided at the bottom.

Asian Studies Fall Film Series

Join Asian Studies in their fall film series! See the flyer to learn more! Each screening will begin at 6pm in Miller 102. Next Thursday, October 24, they are showing All That Breathes. Tell your friends!

ASIA STUDIES FALL FILM SERIES

INSIDE THE YELLOW COCOON SHELL
After his sister-in-law dies in a freak motorcycle accident in Saigon, Thien is bestowed the task of delivering her body back to their countryside hometown. It is a journey in which he also takes his nephew Dao (5), who miraculously survived the crash. Amidst the mystical landscapes of rural Vietnam, Thien begins a search for his older brother who vanished years ago to hand Dao over to him - a journey which deeply questions his faith.
SEPTEMBER 26

ALL THAT BREATHES
In one of the world's most populated cities, cows, rats, monkeys, frogs, and hogs jostle cheek-by-jowl with people. Here, two brothers fall in love with a bird - the black kite. From their makeshift bird hospital in their tiny basement, the 'kite brothers' care for thousands of these mesmerizing creatures that drop daily from New Delhi's smog-choked skies. As environmental toxicity and civil unrest escalate, the relationship between this Muslim family and the neglected kite forms a poetic chronicle of the city's collapsing ecology and rising social tensions.
OCTOBER 24

TRAIN TO BUSAN
Sok-woo, a father with not much time for his daughter, Soo-ahn, are boarding the KTX, a fast train that shall bring them from Seoul to Busan. But during their journey, the apocalypse begins, and most of the earth's population become flesh craving zombies. While the KTX is shooting towards Busan, the passenger's fight for their families and lives against the zombies - and each other.
NOVEMBER 21

ALL MOVIES WILL BE SHOWN IN MILLER 102
6:00-9:00PM
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
