

IME Newsletter Volume 9

Happy Friday everyone! We hope you are enjoying the cooler weather and staying warm.

We're honoring Ace Week! A week to celebrate and recognize the diverse asexual community. To learn more about Ace Week and asexuality, see this blog article. For identity-related support, we encourage you to talk to one of our staff members or visit the Queer Student Union.

Call for Models!

As part of the 21st Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies, we are organizing a fashion show to celebrate the stories behind our style and participants are needed to make it happen.

This event is an invitation for students and other L&C community members to share the cultural identities, ethnic backgrounds, religious traditions, and racialized forms of expression that help them fashion a sense of personal style and create narratives of who they are.

- Event info: Fri. Nov. 15, 3:30-4:30 in Smith Hall Self styled!
- Wear what has meaning to you! Show off your favorite accessories and fabrics: Casual, Slutty, Subversive, Lazy, or Formal ~~~~~
- No experience necessary
- Open to L&C community and L&C alumni
- 4 hour time commitment max (one dress rehearsal and some brief outfit descriptions)

Elections and Current Events

Let it Out during the Let Out!
Process the Elections with Good Company

The Let Out is a space which centers on the BIPOC experience at college and how mental health plays a part in this experience. All are welcome to participate in this space through listening and supporting each other. Join Christabel during the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of each month, 5:30-6:30pm in Lower Odell room 008.

On Oct. 30th and Nov. 6th, IME and the Counseling Center will hold space for anyone who wants to process the U.S. elections. We will offer pizza during these events for attendees to dine and process.

Visit the IME Suite on the 3rd floor of Fowler: 9-5pm Monday to Friday
