

Hi, new student!

As we get further into the summer, we wanted to offer a big-picture look at course registration and how you can get any support you need.

When will registration happen?

Registration happens in two rounds on July 30 and August 1. On July 30, you'll register for two 4–5 credit classes, and on August 1, you'll register for the rest of your fall classes.

How does registration work?

You will register for your classes using WebAdvisor. Your faculty advisor and college advisor are available to help via email and Zoom, both during the days of registration and in the weeks leading up to it. We highly recommend you connect with your faculty advisor if you haven't already to plan your fall course schedule.

What should I be doing right now?

- Start brainstorming which classes you'd like to take using the College Advising Center's Getting Started in a Major or Minor page. This page lists every program we offer along with suggested courses.
- Schedule an appointment with your faculty advisor, if you haven't already done so! Don't wait until the last minute to meet with your advisor, as their calendars can get booked up.
- Save the date for our registration webinar on July 22.
- Check out the Transfer FAQ page for answers to other common registration questions.

I need academic accommodations. How do I go about setting them up?

The Office of Student Accessibility will work with new students to set up disability-related accommodations. If you haven't already done so, please reach out to the Office of Student Accessibility to start the process of setting up your accommodations.

Liberal Arts and Academics Webinar

Attend this week's webinar on Tuesday, July 8 from 1–2 p.m. PDT to hear from a professor and our College Advising Center about the liberal arts experience and L&C's academic offerings. There will be time for questions at the end. A recording of the webinar will be made available for those unable to attend.

Checklist Reminders

- Enroll a designee in Authorized Party before the July 11 preferred deadline.
- Settle your student account.
