

THE L&C BUZZ

Hi, new student!

Take a deep breath—you did it!

The New Student Checklist summer tasks are mostly in your past (there are still a few deadlines out there, so be sure to look at the checklist and/or track your progress in the Moodle course).

Get ready to move to the place you will call home for the next four years, because New Student Orientation starts on Thursday! Prepare for the best time full of amazing activities and events. We guarantee that the experience will be informative, engaging, and gratifying. Change can be hard, but NSO will help ease this transition.

One of our favorite parts about orientation is the sense of excitement on campus. It's wonderful watching new students embark on a new journey together, and having other first-year students by your side will reassure you that you won't go through college alone.

Your time at L&C will fly by, but plan to make some fun memories this first week. You only start here once!

Advice From a Current Student

“Go to all the activities the first few weeks because that’s where you can meet a ton of new people.”

Kate Meinhard BA '26

We'll see you on campus so soon!
