

IME Newsletter Week 11

Happy Monday and cheers to a new week! November is Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month, a time to celebrate the histories and ongoing cultures and traditions of Indigenous people around the world. Join IME, Native Student Union, and our Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month Planning Committee in celebrating this special month -- see below for a list of events and opportunities!

For PDF versions and archives, visit the IME website or click this link.

What's Happening

In this week's IME Newsletter:

IME Events and News

- November is Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month!
- GEM Gathering: Fiber Arts Night

More Events and News

- The Nest Resource Center Opens!
- 22nd Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies
- Art for a Cause
- Exploring Reed College's Nuclear Reactor
- Embodied Spirituality: Try InterPlay!

Opportunities

- Call for Storytellers: Indigenous Stories About Moss
- 61st International Fair Logo Contest
- Asian American Journalism Association - Paid Summer Internship Opportunity
- Life Skills Lab Drop-In Hours

November is Indigenous Peoples' Heritage Month!

During November, we honor and celebrate the culture, traditional practices, and customs of Indigenous peoples. With many Indigenous peoples spread over many countries worldwide, we take this month to recognize the stories of all Indigenous peoples. Please see our website to learn more about each specific event!

CELEBRATE INDIGENOUS PEOPLES' HERITAGE MONTH

During November, we honor and celebrate the culture, traditional practices, and customs of Indigenous Peoples.

With many Indigenous Peoples spread over many countries worldwide, we take this month to recognize the stories of all Indigenous Peoples.

Learn more about each event via link below:

<https://tinyurl.com/2025IPHMLC>

Questions? Email multicultural@clark.edu

ETHNOBOTANY WALK

Join College Outdoors & IME for a guided walk around campus. We will be exploring native plants and forage for ingredients to make herbal teas.

Wednesday, November 5th from 2-3:30pm
Meet outside of College Outdoors

FRYBREAD FEST 2025

Celebrate with the Portland community during a fun-filled day of music, cultural performances, and educational workshops. This is an off-campus event. IME can help coordinate rides for those who are interested.

Saturday, November 8th from 11-5pm
Off-campus event, Director Park
815 SW Park Ave, Portland, Oregon

BINGO NIGHT

Native American Law Student Association presents a BINGO & dinner fundraiser. Attendees can purchase BINGO tickets and/or raffle tickets. For more information, check out our website (QR code above).

November 13th from 5:30-7:30pm
L&C Law Campus in the LRC

CONTEMPLATIVE RESILIENCE: THE NEUROSCIENCE OF HEALING AND RESTORATION

This workshop offers a restorative and regenerating space grounded in contemplative practices and neuroscience, to support participants in strengthening internal resilience while deepening their capacity for compassion and connection. Free self-care items.

December 5th from 4-5:30pm
Location: Meditation Room of Center for Spiritual Life

NALSA'S BINGO FUNDRAISING DINNER

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13TH

5:30-7:30PM
IN THE LRC

ENTRY TICKETS
ONLINE OR AT DOOR

$15

RAFFLE TICKETS
(MAX 10)

$10

BINGO • RAFFLE • SILENT AUCTION

Join us as we raise funds to send NALSA members to the Fed Bar Indian Law Conference and to support other NALSA activities!

Entry ticket $10 if purchased in-person during lunchtime tabling @ LRC, Nov. 11-13

SERVING FRY BREAD TACOS (VEGAN OPTION AVAILABLE)

Learn More About IPHM
Events!

GEM Gathering: Fiber Arts Night

Wednesday, November 19
6:30-7:30pm
IME Suite

Join Mentors Jazmin and Rosa for their GEM Gathering: Fiber Arts Night! Learn how to crochet or knit. No experience required! All materials provided or bring your own. There'll be snacks, warm cider, and cozy creations!

FIBER ARTS NIGHT!

LEARN TO KNIT OR CROCHET
WITH MENTORS JAZMIN & ROSA!

enjoy some snacks and warm cider!

November 19
6:30 PM
IME suite

GEM Gathering
For any questions:
multicultural@clark.edu

More Events and News

The Nest Resource Center Opens!

The Nest, Lewis & Clark's resource center located on undergrad campus in Roberts 112, is opening up starting the week of November 3rd! It is available to Law students, Grad students, and Undergrad students

The Nest offers a clothing swap closet, food pantry, resources, textbooks, and much more.

Roberts 112 hours will be open 10am-10pm. If you have any questions, please email thelcnest@gmail.com.

22nd Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies

Wednesday, November 12: Events

7 p.m.

Puerto Rico as Resistance: Past and Present - Keynote Event
Council Chamber, Fowler Student Center

Thursday, November 13: Events

9:45 – 11:15 a.m.

Branching Out: Community Organizing Beyond Campus
Council Chamber, Fowler Student Center

11:45 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Race Across Disciplinary Boundaries: Student Research Showcase
Council Chamber, Fowler Student Center

1:45 – 3:15 p.m.

Sewing Resistance: A Patch-Making and Mending Workshop
Watzek Library 245

7 p.m.

The Anti-Authoritarian Playbook- Keynote Event
Council Chamber, Fowler Student Center

Friday, November 14: Events

12:45–1:45 p.m.

Grassroots Resistance in the Northwest: The Immigrant Worker Community
Council Chamber, Fowler Student Center

3:30–4:30 p.m.

Fashion Show: Embodied Resistance
Smith Hall, Albany Quadrangle

7 p.m.

Race Monologues
Agnes Flanagan Chapel

22nd Annual Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies

The Ray Warren Symposium on Race and Ethnic Studies is this week! Join us for keynotes, workshops, and Race Monologues. More than an event, it's a chance to learn, connect, and build solidarity. Your presence matters! Don't miss the opportunity to form part of this year's symposium.

Art for a Cause

Thursday, November 13

6:00pm

The Platteau

Come join Visual and Performing Arts (VAPA) Signature Event: Art for a Cause! This event spotlights Favianna Rodriguez. They use their art as a tool for social change and cultural storytelling. Come Thursday, November 13 at 6:00pm in the Platteau.

Learn how art can be used as a political tool to challenge systems, celebrate identity, and promote community awareness.

VAPA

ART WORKSHOP

art FOR A CAUSE

Artist Highlight: Favianna Rodriguez

Thursday, November 13
6:00 PM
The Platteau

HOSTED BY:
REM CHRISTIANAH
AND HAZEL GILL

Questions? Contact colufade@lclark.edu

EXPLORING REED COLLEGE'S NUCLEAR REACTOR

REED COLLEGE'S RESEARCH REACTOR IS THE ONLY RESEARCH REACTOR IN THE WORLD THAT IS OWNED AND OPERATED BY AN UNDERGRADUATE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION. COME WITH US OFF CAMPUS TO EXPLORE HOW IT'S USED AND WHAT RESEARCH IS BEING DONE WITH IT.

We will provide transportation to students interested.

SCAN ME

Nov. 16. 25
1PM - 3 PM

FOR ANY QUESTIONS AND MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE EMAIL:
SACNAS@LCLARK.EDU

Exploring Reed College's Nuclear Reactor

Sunday, November 16

1:00-3:00pm

Transportation provided for those interested

Reed College's Research Reactor is the only research reactor in the world that is owned and operated by an undergraduate educational institution. Come with us off campus to explore how it's used and what research is being done with it.

Access Link Here

Embodied Spirituality: Try InterPlay!

Sunday, November 16

2:00-3:30pm

Gregg Pavilion

Relieve stress and overwhelm through simple storytelling and movement forms, theater games, improvisation, stillness, and sound. This Sunday's workshop will focus on connection. How do we connect with each other? What can we do when we feel disconnected from ourselves, each other, or a higher power (God, nature, the Mystery...) All are welcome!

More Info
Here

Opportunities

CALL FOR STORYTELLERS: INDIGENOUS STORIES ABOUT MOSS

Love storytelling, theatre, or spoken word? Join us in bringing Indigenous stories to life for an Ear Forest exhibition for Moss Week 2026. Help us record six stories celebrating the relationship between humans and moss. No experience required. Participants will receive a $75 honorarium.

More info - sign up here! →

Call for Storytellers: Indigenous Stories About Moss

Love storytelling, theatre, or spoken word? Help us bring Indigenous stories to life for an Ear Forest exhibition for Moss Week 2026. We are looking for participants to help record six stories featuring the relationship between humans and moss. No experience necessary.

Participants will receive a $75 honorarium. Sign up before December 1. Find more information and sign up below.

Learn More and Sign Up

61st International Fair Logo Contest

We invite you to submit a designed logo under the theme "World Canvas" to be used on the t-shirts and throughout the fair.

The Annual International Fair is a vibrant and enriching celebration that showcases the diverse cultural heritage of its student body. This event is a day-long festival that brings together students, faculty, staff, and members of the local community. The Fair features a wide array of activities including cultural performances, international cuisine, educational booths, and interactive workshops. It serves as a platform for international students to share their traditions and cultures, fostering a sense of global awareness and mutual understanding within the college community.

Asian American Journalism Association - Paid Summer Internship Opportunity

Spend 10 weeks working full time in a professional newsroom! The AAJA-SPJ Emerging Northwest Journalists Internship provides opportunities for sophomore, junior, senior, or graduate students majoring in journalism or a related field, or pursuing journalism. Must currently or previously reside in or attend school in OR or southwest WA. $20 an hour. Questions? Email at aaja.pdx@gmail.com

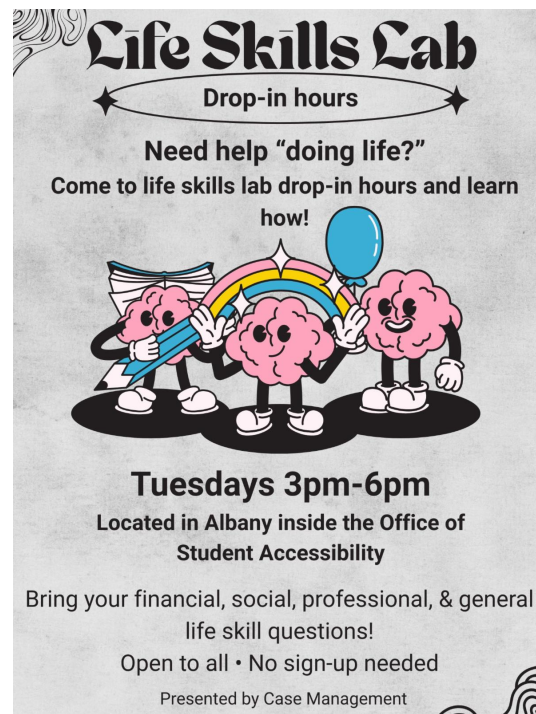

Apply for the Summer
Internship Here

Learn About Additional Internship Opportunities with AAJA

Life Skills Lab Drop-In Hours

Tuesdays 3:00-6:00pm
Albany, Office of Student Accessibility

Case Management presents Life Skills Lab Drop-in Hours. This is an opportunity for students to ask life skills questions about budgeting, banking, grocery shopping, professional communication and more. Drop-in hours are first come first serve and students will be able to work with a case manager one-on-one.

Visit the IME Suite on the 3rd floor of Fowler: 9-5pm Monday to Friday

Interested in submitting something to be added to the IME Newsletter?

If you would like to submit something to be added to the IME newsletter, please fill out the form below. The IME newsletter goes out every Friday morning. All submissions to make it into the weekly newsletter must be done by Monday at 9am or they will be put in the next week's newsletter.

Submit to the IME
Newsletter

Lewis & Clark College | 0615 SW Palatine Hill Rd. | Portland, OR 97219 US

Unsubscribe | Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Try email marketing for free today!