

Schedule of Events

Thursday, June 11

3:00 – 8:00 p.m. | Check-in: Come check in, get your name tag, and get all of the information you need to enjoy the weekend! If you have reserved on-campus housing, you will be able to access your room.

All Day | Walk Down Memory Lane: Stroll across the Howard Bridge near the Alumni Circle to view a photo timeline of life at L&C through the decades.

9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. | The Impossibleists Exhibit at Watzek Library: Portland in the 1980s and the art of defiance. Explore the zines, original works, and underground relics of The Impossibleists, a counter-culture collective that reshaped the city's creative scene.

4:30 – 5:30 p.m. | Class of 2011 Pre-Pickles Social at The Zed: The Class of 2011 will reserve some tables for this no-host Portland Pickles "Pre-func". Leave your car parked where it is, and enjoy the stroll down to Walker Stadium. All are welcome!

6:00 p.m. | Young Alumni at Portland Pickles Baseball: Join the Class of 2021 and General Manager Courtney Schmidt '21 at Walker Stadium! We'll gather in the "Hot Corner" for "Spooky" themed night—our L&C orange and black will fit right in. Tickets exclusive to Young Alumni (2011–2026) until April 1st.

Friday, June 12

8:00 – 9:00 a.m. | Light Breakfast: Thank you for staying with us! Fuel up with grab-and-go continental breakfast items and coffee in the Odell or East lounge.

8:30 a.m. – 8:00 p.m. | Check-in: Pick up your name tag and all the information you need to enjoy the weekend! If you have reserved on-campus housing, you will be able to access your room at this time.

All Day | Walk Down Memory Lane: Stroll across the Howard Bridge near the Alumni Circle to view a photo timeline of life at L&C through the decades.

9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. | The Impossibleists Exhibit at Watzek Library: Portland in the 1980s and the art of defiance. Explore the zines, original works, and underground relics of The Impossibleists, a counter-culture collective that reshaped the city's creative scene.

9:00 – 10:30 a.m. | Alumni College: All-Levels Creative Movement Workshop with Professor Tiffany Mills, Director of Dance: This workshop explores dance improvisation and the five senses. Participants will practice "radical listening" through movement, bridging the gap between intellectual engagement and creative abandonment.

9:15 – 10:30 a.m. and 1:45 – 3:00 p.m. | Campus Tours: Revisit old haunts and see the latest campus transformations on an Admissions-guided tour, where you'll be joined by Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students Dr. Ben Meoz.

10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. | EAR Forest Exhibits: The Experimental Arts Research (EAR) forest is an outdoor laboratory exploring sonic, spatial, and ecological relationships. Located in the forest canopy behind the Fields Art Building, the site features soundwalks and audio experiments. Note: The path is rough and uneven; for those off-campus or with mobility concerns, binaural recordings are available via the EAR Forest SoundCloud channel.

11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. | All-Levels Yoga with Mia Darshan '04: Shake off travel fatigue and restore your well-being. This session focuses on "feel-good" energy for both mind and body. All levels are welcome! About the Instructor: Mia is a Portland-based artist and highly credentialed instructor, certified through Eight Limbs Yoga and Yoga International (Yin Yoga), with leadership experience at Shefayoga.

12:00 – 1:30 p.m. | Class of '66 Luncheon: Enjoy a dedicated lunch with your reunion class, featuring updates from classmates and group activities.

12:00 – 1:00 p.m. | Pickleball: Head to the Tennis Dome for friendly matches with fellow alumni, staff, and faculty. All skill levels—including beginners—are welcome!

1:00 – 2:00 p.m. | Alumni College: The Intelligence of the Body with Theatre Professor Rebecca Lingafelter: Professor Lingafelter introduces "The Viewpoints," a performance training technique that cultivates presence and impulse. Come prepared to move!

2:00 – 4:00 p.m. | Veterans' Alumni Social: The Veterans' Alumni Network is excited to present this unique opportunity to meet in a relaxed setting and share stories from Lewis & Clark Alumni and community members who have served in, with, or alongside the armed services in any capacity.

3:00 – 5:00 p.m. | Games & Goodies in the Rose Garden (with Goats!): Explore the Historic Rose Garden restoration, a project led by Jennifer Huenik '91 and Sophie Abbassian '25. Enjoy lawn games, refreshments, and meet the "working goats" helping to clear invasive species.

3:30 – 4:30 p.m. | L&C Career Networking and our New Career Accelerator!:

Whether you're a recent grad navigating your first steps or a seasoned professional looking to give back, this is your space. Join us for this time dedicated to "getting and giving" career wisdom across the decades. You'll hear from Joe Hewa, Director of the new L&C Career Accelerator, on how alumni are already shaping the future of student success. Plus, learn how you can personally tap into Career Center services to fuel your own professional journey.

5:00 – 6:00 p.m. | All-Alumni Reception: Copas & Comunidad: Help us start the party with bites, beverages, and wines from alumni-owned vineyards. Featuring a performance by Sofi Nava '29 and special treats from the L&C Latinx and Hispanic Alumni Association.

6:00 – 8:00 p.m. | Flashback Friday Dinner: Let's do the Time Warp again! Join alumni from across the decades in a nostalgia-themed venue for a delicious buffet meal including a few "past favorite" campus foods.

6:00 – 8:00 p.m. | Class Reunion Dinners: For the classes of '76, '96, and '06.
(Alumni connected with other classes can plan to attend the Flashback Friday Dinner).

6:00 – 8:00 p.m. | Young Alumni Reunion Years Dinner (2011, 2016, 2021): Connect with fellow young alumni at this cross-class dinner. Note: (Young alumni connected with other classes can plan to attend the Flashback Friday Dinner).

8:00 – 10:00 p.m. | LC Black Alumni Association Mixer:

Olive or Twist (Pearl District): This is an opportunity for alumni to have a great time together at a black-owned business while learning about L&C's growing black student and alumni support networks. First drink hosted by The Lewis & Clark Black Alumni Association and Dr. Stacy Thompson '79, Board of Trustees Member and Board of Alumni President.

8:30 – 9:30 p.m. | Alumni Good Times Jam and Singalong: Sing along or listen as Jan (Friesen) Pearce '74 and Richard Moore '71 lead an inspired set of favorite songs!

9:00 p.m. – 11:00 | GLOWDEO After-Party: A revival of the beloved Class of 2016 tradition. Wear your neon and get ready to dance under the blacklights! (Glow accessories provided).

Saturday, June 13

8:00 – 9:00 a.m. | Light Breakfast: [Internal: Stay-on-campus guests only] Thank you for staying with us! Fuel up with grab-and-go continental breakfast items and coffee in the Odell or East lounge.

8:30 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. | Check-in: Come check in, get your name tag, and get all of the information you need to enjoy the weekend! If you have reserved on-campus housing, you will be able to access your room.

All Day | Walk Down Memory Lane: Stroll across the Howard Bridge near the Alumni Circle to view a photo timeline of life at L&C through the decades.

8:00 – 9:00 a.m. | All-Levels Yoga with Mia Darshan '04: Wake up your body and sharpen your focus for the day ahead. Join us for an intentionally guided, all-levels yoga class designed to prime your mind for discovery. This session will leave you feeling energized and ready to pursue your curiosities with clarity and intent.

About the Instructor: Mia is a Portland-based artist and highly credentialed instructor, certified through Eight Limbs Yoga and Yoga International (Yin Yoga), with leadership experience at Shefayoga.

9:00 – 10:00 a.m. | Alumni College: Environmental Innovation at L&C – Panel led by Professor Elizabeth Safran: Join Professor of Geological Science Elizabeth Safran, along with other faculty and alumni, in a discussion about how fresh approaches to a variety of environmental threats and challenges are being developed both at L&C with its new Center for Environmental Innovation and by alumni in their post-graduation professions.

9:00 – 11:00 a.m. | Golden Medallion Breakfast: Honoring the Class of 1976 as they are inducted into the Albany Society for their 50th reunion. Keynote address by former Oregon Senator Rick Metsger BS '72, G '75. Golden medallions will be presented by President Robin Holmes-Sullivan. All alumni - and especially senior alumni- are welcome to attend this milestone celebration.

9:30 – 11:00 a.m. | Athletics Reception: Join your fellow Athletics alumni to learn more about LC Athletics, mingle with coaches, meet current student-athletes and network with recent grads!

10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. | The Impossibilists Exhibit at Watzek Library: Portland in the 1980s and the art of defiance. Portland, the 1980s, and the art of defiance. Explore the zines, original works, and underground relics of The Impossibilists. This Watzek Library collection tracks the rise of a counter-culture collective that ignored the rules and reshaped the city's creative scene.

10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. | EAR Forest Exhibits: The Experimental Arts Research (EAR) forest is an outdoor laboratory exploring sonic, spatial, and ecological relationships. Located in the forest canopy behind the Fields Art Building, the site features soundwalks and audio experiments. Note: The path is rough and uneven; for those off-campus or with mobility concerns, binaural recordings are available via the EAR Forest SoundCloud channel.

10:00 – 11:00 a.m. | Alumni College: Reflections from the Bench, Alumni Judges Panel: U.S.

District Court Judge Laura Provinzino '98, 2025 Distinguished Alumna

Multnomah County Circuit Court Judge Angela Lucero L'03

Multnomah County Circuit Court Judge Pone Sinlapasai L'02

Moderator: Law Professor Tung Yin

11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. | A Walk Through the Campus Forest with Professor Emerita Paulette

Bierzychudek: Join Professor Emerita of Biology for a walk that takes a look at how the parts of the forest work, forest history, and how to identify trees. Wear comfortable walking shoes (hiking boots not necessary) and bring water. If you have binoculars, you can bring them as well!

11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. | Oregon's Native Tribes & First Foods Tasting with Professor Emeritus

Stephen Dow Beckham and the Native Alumni Association: Join Professor Emeritus of History Stephen Dow Beckham for his lecture; "Oregon's Native Americans: Modern Tribal Status and Economic Impacts" to explore the evolution of Oregon's nine federally recognized tribes. Learn how their economic diversification is transforming tribal governance, infrastructure, and social services. Following the lecture, join the Native Alumni Association for a First Foods tasting reception to celebrate L&C's Indigenous collaborations and the Native Alumni Scholarship Endowment.

11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. | Brunch with Bubbly: Enjoy the best meal of the week; brunch! Head to Fields for the full brunch experience, with, or without, the bubbly.

12:30 – 2:00 p.m. | Overseas and Off-Campus Program Luncheon: Celebrating L&C's History of Global Education: Seating is organized by geographic region so you can reconnect with those who shared your "home away from home." Includes international cuisine, trivia, faculty leader reflections, and remarks by Paul Barker '71 and Aukeem Ballard '11.

1:00 – 2:00 p.m. | Alumni College: Financial Planning with Rebecca Holt '01 and Tate Sellers '15:

Whether you are new to financial planning or are already working with a financial advisor, come learn about some of the latest ways to make your money go farther for you and those you care about.

2:00 – 3:00 p.m. | Alumni College: The Heritage Properties of L&C with Professor Emeritus

Stephen Dow Beckham: Professor Beckham presents "Fortune and Friendship," a lecture on the history, architecture, and stewardship of the college's historic estate properties.

2:00 – 4:00 p.m. | Athletics Reunion & Facility Tours: Catch up with your fellow Athletics alumni! You can also take a tour of the L&C Athletics facilities, including the newly renovated Room 10, strength and conditioning center, Medical Training Center and hall of fame display. Coaches, current student-athletes and athletics administrators will be there to mingle, too!

2:30 – 3:30 p.m. | Alumni of Color Reception: All are welcome at this signature annual event, which provides a dedicated space for L&C BIPOC alumni to connect, network, and celebrate our vibrant community. Discover how our Black, Native, and Latinx/Hispanic Alumni Associations are empowering current students to embrace their heritage and find mentors who share their journey.

3:00 – 4:00 p.m. | Terrarium Design Workshop with Robin Fujita '18: Build your own self-sustaining moss terrarium! Part of L&C's annual "Moss Appreciation Week," this workshop lets you craft a cute, portable, low-maintenance ecosystem.

3:00 – 4:00 p.m. | Philanthropy Reception: Members of the Leadership Society, Heritage Society, Fir Acres Loyalty Society, and Philanthropy Council are invited to a special reception during Alumni Weekend. Join us for good company, hors d'oeuvres, a signature cocktail and an update from President Holmes-Sullivan! This event is by invitation only.

3:30 – 4:15 p.m. | Juneteenth Commemoration: Do not miss this moving highlight of Alumni Weekend, where we will learn about the history of the holiday and participate in a traditional libation ceremony. African drummers will then lead attendees to the Alumni Honors Celebration.

4:30 – 6:00 p.m. | Alumni Honors Celebration: The Board of Alumni invites you to attend this special event to honor and celebrate four outstanding members of the Lewis & Clark community. The following 2025 Honors will be awarded:

Distinguished Alumni Award: Laura Provinzino BA '98

Outstanding Young Alumni Award: Aukeem Ballard BA '11 MAT '12

Alumni Leadership Award: Mike Shiffer BA '69

Donald G. Balmer Citation for Service to the College: Professor Emeritus of Mathematics Greg Fredricks

6:00 – 8:00 p.m. | Big Tent Banquet: Community Celebration: Join us under the big tent on the Fir Acres Estate Garden Plaza (Plat Lawn) for our signature Saturday evening community-wide meal. Enjoy drinks, entertainment, and the company of Alumni Honors awardees in a festive summer atmosphere.

8:00 – 10:00 p.m. | Alumni Weekend Karaoke Lounge: For those who want to keep the good times rolling after dinner, head over to our karaoke lounge! Whether you're a stage veteran or a "strength in numbers" backup singer, come enjoy a night of hits from all styles and eras.

Sunday, June 14th

8:00 – 9:00 a.m. | Light Breakfast: [Internal: Stay-on-campus guests only] Thank you for staying with us! Fuel up with grab-and-go continental breakfast items and coffee in the Odell or East lounge.

8:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. | Check-in & Check-out: You can check out of housing, leave your luggage, and get any last-minute information.

Housing check out is also available in the main lounge of the residence hall you are staying in.

All Day | Walk Down Memory Lane: Stroll across the Howard Bridge near the Alumni Circle to view a photo timeline of life at L&C through the decades.

8:00 – 11:00 a.m. | Board of Alumni Meeting

9:00 – 11:30 a.m. | Service Event – Socialize for Social Impact: Join us in a special service event on campus led by L&C's Center for Social Change and Community Involvement. Details coming soon!

12:00 – 1:30 p.m. | President's Lunch: Close out the weekend with a special luncheon hosted by President Robin Holmes-Sullivan, featuring updates on the future of the college.